

As we continue to work through President Obama's "Keep what you have" announcement and our ability to implement the necessary changes, we wanted to remind you of our repurchase strategy that we have in place for your customers.

The deadline for non-grandfathered members with January to July effective dates to repurchase their current plans has been extended from November 25 to November 27 11:59 p.m. ET.

This new deadline is the last date that a non-grandfathered member with January to July effective date can take action to repurchase their current plan. To repurchase, these members should follow the instructions on the letter they received. As a reminder, grandfathered members do not need to make any changes. They can stay in their current plan. Members with August to December effective dates can stay in their current plan until their anniversary date in 2014.

You can review your grandfathered and non-grandfathered members in your Book of Business report.

The extension gives you extra time to help your clients take advantage of premium savings which gives your clients the option to keep their health insurance coverage and the stable rates they have.
