¹ A $10 copay applies to each dental provider visit. This copay does not apply toward the $100 lifetime deductible.

All benefits and features apply per covered person and per calendar year, unless otherwise states.

For the Copay, Primary and Superior plans, the first year/second year coinsurance applies per plan year, not calendar year. For these plans, Basic coverage is reduced to 25 percent coinsurance and Major coverage is reduced to 10 percent coinsurance for new hires and employees not enrolled in the employer's previous dental plan. This reduction applies to all covered family members and impacts first-year coverage only.

Groups of five or more

Several plan choices are available, and groups may build the plan they want by customizing:

² The copay applies to each dental provider visit. Copays do not apply to the selected deductible.

³ Waiting period credit: When we take over a dental group from another carrier, those insured under the prior carrier's plan the day before the Flexident effective date and eligible for coverage on the Flexident effective date will receive waiting period credit. New employees, dependent add-ons, late entrants and re-enrollees are not eligible.

Optional benefits

▶ Max Grow

Employees enjoy a graded plan-year maximum in years two and three, regardless of their annual plan usage. The maximum amount simply increases by $250 to $500 each year, depending upon the option chosen by the group, helping to decrease out-of-pocket expenses.

▶ Orthodontia

Groups of five or more can elect to add orthodontia coverage for dependents to age 19. After a 12- or 24-month waiting period, 50 percent coinsurance applies to covered charges up to a selected orthodontic calendar-year or lifetime maximum benefit.

▶ Veneers

Groups of five or more can elect to add veneers to the list of covered major services.

Plan highlights

▶ Employee choice

What employees want from a dental plan—and how much they are willing to spend on it—varies. To accommodate this reality, Flexident offers plan choice to groups of five or more participating employees. For example, multiple plans may be used in the following ways:

- Employer pays for plan A and offers plan B as an optional employee “buy up”
- Employee-paid plans with multiple options to help increase dental plan participation—the higher the participation, the lower the rates
- Carve-out plans where plan A is offered to one employee class, while plan B is offered to another

▶ Voluntary plans

Groups with five or more participating employees are eligible for coverage, no matter how many employees work at the business. Most voluntary plans have continuous open enrollment, which allows employees to join the plan at anytime.

▶ Non-network reimbursement level

Employers that choose a preferred provider plan can choose to have non-network claims reimbursed either at the maximum allowable charge (MAC) level or on an incentive basis. This selection is available for the Traditional, Primary and Superior plans, or for groups of five or more creating a custom plan.

MAC Plan

Benefits are determined based on a network fee schedule, regardless of whether treatment is provided by a network provider. Out-of-network charges in excess of the network fee schedule are the responsibility of the insured.

Incentive Plan

Coinsurance percentages are generally higher in-network than out-of-network, reducing out-of-pocket expenses for insureds who use in-network services. However, an incentive plan in which both the in- and out-of-pocket coinsurance percentages are the same could be used in lieu of a higher-rated indemnity plan. Out-of-network charges are subject to the plan’s reasonable and customary charge.

Plan information

The following provides a brief overview of the Flexident dental plan guidelines and definitions. This plan overview is not the insurance group policy or certificate. Please refer to the certificate of insurance for detailed definitions along with a full explanation of plan exclusions, limitations, benefits and guidelines.

Eligibility

Employees of a participating employer, their spouse and dependent children are eligible for coverage. In order to be considered an eligible dependent child, he/she must be under age 26.

Covered charges

A covered charge is considered the reasonable and customary charge for a medically necessary covered procedure.

Covered procedure

In order to be considered a covered procedure, it must be: 1) for medically necessary dental treatment to a covered person while his or her coverage under the policy is in force and, 2) for treatment, which in our opinion, has a reasonably favorable prognosis for the patient. The procedure must be performed by a licensed dentist who is acting within the scope of his or her license, a licensed physician performing dental services within the scope of his or her license, or a licensed dental hygienist acting under the supervision and direction of a dentist.

Reasonable and customary charge

The most common charge for similar professional services, drugs, procedures, devices, supplies or treatment within the geographic area in which the charge is incurred. The most common charge is the lesser of: the actual amount charged by the provider, the negotiated rate, or the usual charge that would have been made by a provider in the same geographical area for the same or comparable professional services or supplies, as determined by us.

Alternative benefit

If we determine that a less expensive service or supply can be used in place of the proposed treatment benefits are limited to the reasonable and customary charge for the least expensive alternative treatment.

Predetermination of benefits

Except in an emergency, before an covered person may begin treatment that will cost more than the predetermination amount shown on the certificate's schedule of benefits page, the dentist must submit a claim to us describing the treatment necessary and its cost. This estimate is not a guarantee of payment. We will consider a claim for which the covered person has not obtained prior approval; however, the claims will be subject to reduced benefits based on the reasonable and customary charges, and medically necessary treatment.

Coordination of benefits

This plan will be coordinated with any other group, blanket or franchise plan under which a covered person will receive benefits.
